6. [REDACTED] Called Mike Reed, Legislative Assistant, in the Office of the Speaker, in line with our agreement in our last meeting concerning action the Speaker might take to attempt to deter the proliferation of sensitive information among congressional committees and to be considerate of Mr. Colby's time and advised him of our most recent contact from House Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee on Postal Facilities, Mail, and Labor Management indicating a probable interest in Mr. Colby's testimony on mail survey. I gave Reed the referent information and he promised to see what could be done. I said that we left it up to him as to what actions could be undertaken which may not be counterproductive.

[REDACTED] Called Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, regarding the above matter of the House Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee on Postal Facilities, Mail, and Labor Management on Mr. Colby's testimony on mail survey and informed him of my conversation with Mike Reed, of the Speaker's Office, and suggested that he might want to bring this to the attention of Chairman Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.) with the hope that he might be able to convince Chairman Charles H. Wilson (D., Calif.) to stand down and let the Select Committee review these matters. Hogan said he would mention this to Jack Boos, House Armed Services Committee staff, as he had my call the other day and to Mr. Nedzi.
